

2008 Mason-Dixon Trials

A rally-style event held to support the fight against ALS (Lou Gehrig's disease)
Presented by the MGs of Baltimore and sanctioned by the SCCA-Washington, D.C. region.

This is an automotive competition held on the public roads at legal speeds. You must follow a prescribed route of approximately 65 miles at given average speeds. Along the route, you will pass checkpoints where your passage will be timed. You are scored according to how closely you maintained those speeds between checkpoints.

WHEN: Sunday July 20th. Registration opens at 9:30 AM. First car off at 11:00.

FINISH: Fiore Winery, 3026 Whiteford Rd., (Rte 136), Pylesville, MD

WINE TASTING and LIVE MUSIC.

Bring your own picnic lunch encouraged.

Each team competing receives not only entry to the Trials, but also:

- Admission to the winery party
- Two Mason-Dixon Trials wine glasses for the tasting
- A weekend membership in the sports Car Club of America including club magazine, etc.
- Free stopwatches to the earlier entries for as long as they last (may need batteries)
- Participation in the wine tasting
- Event trophies will be specially labeled bottles of Fiore Wines

Classes: For those contesting the Mid Atlantic Rally Series or the SCCA National championship, SCCA Equipped, Limited and Stock Classes are offered. For those competing in a classic car: Vintage: Cars made before 1961. Historic: Cars made between 1961 and 1983. For those with limited experience and equipment, out for a day's recreation, we suggest the Seat-of-the-Pants class (SOP).
